

AUSTRALIAN ZERO HOMELESSNESS SUMMIT

HOMELESSNESS
IS SOLVABLE

Summit, AtoZ Learning Sessions & Workshops Briefing

26, 27 and 28 October 2022

Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre and other locations

The summit will take place alongside the learning sessions with all the communities that are part of the Advance to Zero Campaign as well as many of the Allied Networks associated with the AAEH.

AtoZ Learning Session - Wednesday 26 October

Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre, Grey Street, South Brisbane

The Advance to Zero communities' continuous improvement teams come together for an in-person peer learning session where participants compare notes with other communities, tap into expert guidance from partner organisations, and build action plans to get results for their local community. Come gather with community teams working to end homelessness across Australia as part of the Advance to Zero movement. This session will focus on building skills, learning from bright spots across Australia, and creating connections between our work.

Audience: For existing Advance to Zero communities only.

Australian Zero Homelessness Summit - Thursday 27 October

8:00 am to 4:30pm

Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre

We know that ending homelessness is possible, but only if we work together in new ways. That is why on 27 October 2022 the Australian Alliance to End Homelessness (AAEH) will be hosting the inaugural Australian Zero Homelessness Summit, bringing together all the organisations and communities committed to ending homelessness in Australia and to officially launch the Advance to Zero campaign.

Audience: $286 + booking fee. Open to all.

Summit, AtoZ Learning Sessions & Workshops Briefing

Workshops - Friday 28 October

Australian Health, Housing and Homelessness Network \(A3HN\)

Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre

The Australian Health, Housing and Homelessness Network (A3HN) works to support a health-informed end to homelessness in Australia. We bring together experts, researchers, practitioners and people with a lived experience of these sectors to support each other's efforts to end homelessness through collaboration, advocacy, events and knowledge sharing. The network is coordinated by the Australian Alliance to End Homelessness and was established to help support the implementation of the Advance to Zero campaign goal of demonstrating that ending homelessness is possible, community by community.

Audience: Free – open to all.

Australian and New Zealand Common Ground Community of Practice

Venue location to be announced

The Common Ground Community of Practice is collaborating on effective, evidence informed Permanent Supportive Housing models, policies and practices to help end homelessness in Australia. Their mission is to promote collaboration amongst Permanent Supportive Housing providers to drive best practice models to ensure people experiencing homelessness can move into housing and stay housed. To provide a national community for the sharing of experiences and effective politics and practices. To collaborate with local and national partners to advocate to end homelessness in Australia.

Audience: Free - invite only.

Australian Homelessness Vulnerability Triage Tool (AHVTT) Development Workshop

Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre

As we work towards building the new version of the Triage Tool being used as part of the Advance to Zero Campaign across Australia, OrgCode will conduct two workshops with service providers, especially front line workers, and people with lived experience of homelessness, to discuss a proposed version of the AHVTT. Invitees are encouraged to participate for consultation and provide their feedback to inform the development of the new tool to help ensure that it meets the needs of the Australian context.

Audience: Free - invite only.
